Overview: LAUC-D Program Committee is tasked with organizing and implementing LAUC-D programs.

Members 2015-16:

David Michalski (Chair),

Kathy Lin (Vice-Chair),

Adam Siegel

Roberto Delgadillo

Activities and Programs:

The Committee sponsored two programs at the cost of $284.17

1.)

LAUC-D Fall Reception

Date: April 7, 2016, 5:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Location: Law Library Lobby

Cost: $256.98

Permits: Alcohol permit acquired for the service of wine

Attendees: 38 LAUC-D and invited guests

Details:

This event is an annual social gathering that provides an opportunity to formally welcome LAUC-D members. This year we welcomed Belen Fernandez, Melinda Livas, Kevin Miller, Alesia McManus, Adele Dobry, Marcus Banks, Jennifer Harbster.

MacKenzie Smith, Judy Janes opened the event, and Gail Yokote, Myra Appel, Beth Callahan and Bill Garrity provided introductions.

Food was purchased at Nugget.

Table items were purchased at Dollar Tree

Flowers were purchased at Trader Joes.

Wine was donated by attendees.

Note: This reception was held in the spring rather than in the fall to allow LAUC-D to welcome more of its new members. Members generally appreciated the shift, noting that the Fall quarter can be rather busy.

2.)

Doing Ethnic Studies Research with Special Collections Archives, a talk by Professor Richard Kim

Date: May 19, 2016 3-4:30 PM

Location: Library Instruction Room, second floor, Peter J. Shields Library
Cost: $27.19
Permits: none

Attendees: 22, including Library staff, Faculty, Students and Graduate Students.

Details:

Doing Ethnic Studies Research with Special Collections Archives
Professor Richard Kim

Professor Kim, chair of the Asian American Studies Department spoke on the place of historical and archival research in ethnic studies, including the role the University Library's Special Collections department played in his current project: Freedom Without Justice: The Prison Memoirs of Chol Soo Lee.

Daryl Morrison, Head of Special Collections introduced Professor Kim's presentation, and gave the audience background information on special collections.

Refreshments were purchased from Whole Foods.
